ORDER:-

In the reference 1st read above, the District Collector, Srikakulam framed (6) charges against Sri D. Atchutanadam, Tahsildar, Vangara Mandal, Srikakulam District for committing certain irregularities for issuance of 55 AAY cards to ineligible persons and other related irregularities on 20.4.2005. The matter was got inquired into and the Inquiry Officer (Joint Collector, Srikakulam) in his inquiry report, dt:19.7.2010 held that the all charges relating to issuance of AAY Ration Cards to ineligible persons are proved as the Charged Officer did not examine the issue properly. In the reference 4th read above, the Chief Commissioner of Land Administration, AP, Hyderabad has referred the matter to Government stating that the individual retired from service on 30.6.2006 to concluding the case under A.P. Revised Pension Rules, 1980. Government after examination, have taken a provisional decision to withhold 20% in pension for a period of two years. Accordingly communicated the same through the reference 5th read above to the O/o. the Chief Commissioner of Land Administration, AP, Hyderabad with a request to serve on the Delinquent Officer.

2. Besides the above disciplinary case, Sri D. Atchutanandam, Tahsildar was committed an irregularity while he was working as Palakonda Mandal, Srikakulam District in issuance of false ST Caste Certificate (Kondakapu) to Kumari N. Silpa, Gottamangalapuram village of Palakonda Mandal. In this case, Government imposed a penalty of lumpsum cut in DCRG equivalent in amount to last annual increment for a period of two years against the above Tahsildar, vide reference 3rd read above.

3. In the reference 6th read above, the Chief Commissioner of Land Administration, AP, Hyderabad has stated that Sri D. Atchutandam Retd Tahsildar, Palakonda who previously resided in Neelamma colony of Palakonda village, left the village since then his whereabouts are not known and hence, the Govt. show-cause notice dt: 13.3.2012 could not be served on the Charged Officer. He has further stated that Smt D. Dasulamma, W/o D.Atchutanandam, has submitted representation stating that her husband expired on 07-01-2013 while drawing provisional pension @ 75% under PPO.No.23-011136 at Sub-Treasury, Palakonda and requested to drop the charges pending against him and to release remaining pension and the withheld amount of retirement gratuity. The Chief Commissioner of Land Administration, AP, Hyderabad while informing the penalty imposed against the deceased in the earlier case and also present case, has stated that there was no pecuniary loss to Government on account of disciplinary cases pending against him and requested for abatement of disciplinary cases pending against deceased.

4. Government have examined the report of the Chief Commissioner of Land Administration, AP, Hyderabad and observe that Sri D. Atchutanandam, former Tahsildar, Palakonda Mandal was awarded a penalty of lumpsum cut in DCRG equivalent in amount to last annual increment for a period of two years in connection with issuance of false ST certificate, vide reference 3rd read above and the same was imposed when the individual was alive (who later expired on 7.1.2013). As such, abatement of further action against the deceased on the above case may not arise and the above penalty needs for implementation. With regard to issuance of AAY cards (present case), as reported by the Chief Commissioner of Land Administration, AP, Hyderabad that there was no loss and hence decided to abate further action against the deceased.

5. Accordingly, Government after careful examination of the matter, hereby abate further action against Late D. Atchutanandam, formerly Tahsildar, Vangara Mandal, Srikakulam District (retired & expired) as there was no pecuniary loss, as reported by the Chief Commissioner of Land Administration, AP, Hyderabad.

6. The Chief Commissioner of Land Administration, AP, Hyderabad is requested to take necessary action to release pension and pensionary benefits of the deceased to the legal heirs, after implementing the orders issued in the reference 3rd read above, if no other disciplinary proceedings are pending against the deceased.
